CHOATE

A yellow line-art illustration of a laurel wreath, consisting of several branches of laurel leaves, is superimposed over the word 'CHOATE'. The wreath is positioned horizontally, with the leaves extending across the letters.

CHOATE ROSEMARY HALL

Your generosity is the key ingredient that helps provide Choate students with life-changing experiences.

Students live and learn sustainably at the Kohler Environmental Center.

The Lin i.d.Lab supports hands-on learning, collaboration, and creativity.

Author Tara Westover visits campus.

Students practice teamwork, perseverance, and sportsmanship in the Larry Hart Pool.

Young artists express their creativity on stage in the Paul Mellon Arts Center.

ZEST FOR LEARNING

There's nothing as refreshing to the mind as a diverse perspective. For highly motivated students, we offer eight signature academic programs in the arts, science research, environmental immersion, robotics, Arabic and Middle Eastern studies, government and public service, and study abroad.

MIX IT UP

Choate students choose from a fruitful selection of more than 300 courses including 170 electives in seven academic departments. This enriched mixture of disciplines allows our scholars to cultivate their learning in countless ways.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

The secret to a fulfilling academic career lies within a passion to learn, even outside the classroom. Choate students regularly engage with thought leaders in various fields who provide them with fresh perspectives, widened world views, and fuel for their growing minds.

APPETITE FOR SUCCESS

Athletics are a staple at Choate, offering a healthy variety of activities to enhance our students' curricular palate. From archery to volleyball, from sailing to squash, they can choose from 72 interscholastic teams in 32 sports and 23 intramural teams.

ICING ON THE CAKE

The arts infuse another dimension for our students, giving them a way to build community, celebrate culture, and appreciate humanity. Visual arts, music, dance, and theater add a rich layer to the Choate experience that satisfies all the senses.

A LITTLE GOES A LONG WAY

Now is the time to rise to the occasion. Combine your sweet memories of Choate with a dash of esprit de corps, and provide Choate students with the perfect recipe for success.

HONEY-BARBECUE BACON WRAPPED WATER CHESTNUTS

INGREDIENTS YOU WILL NEED:

Twenty whole water chestnuts (8 oz.)

Ten strips of bacon cut in half

A quarter cup of barbecue sauce

One tablespoon of melted butter

One tablespoon of honey

Twenty toothpicks, for serving

An abundance of friends, for sharing

STEP ONE

Preheat oven to 425°F. Soak toothpicks in water for at least 5 minutes. Wrap each water chestnut with a half strip of bacon and secure with a toothpick. Spread out evenly on a baking sheet.

STEP TWO

In a small bowl, whisk together barbecue sauce, melted butter, and honey. With a pastry brush, brush the mixture over the wrapped chestnuts.

STEP THREE

Bake for 25 minutes until bacon is crispy. Let cool and enjoy!

An appetizer for you to enjoy from 5th former Spencer Villani. View his food blog at tastesgoodlooksgood.com.
