

GREETINGS

from

Arielle Landau '17 is a sophomore at Middlebury College where she's pursuing joint majors in Environmental Studies and Sociology. She got her start at Choate's Kohler Environmental Center (KEC).

Greetings from the Green Mountains!

During a hike last week, I remembered how I discovered an abandoned truck that nature had reclaimed in the woods around the KEC. In that moment, I was struck by the beauty and power of nature. This, and other experiences I had while a student in the Environmental Immersion Program, sprouted my deep love of the environment which continues to grow.

I hope that whatever path you explore, it always leads you back to Choate.

Arielle '17

Here's how YOU can

GO

CHOATE Today!

CHOATE ROSEMARY HALL 333 CHRISTIAN STREET P.O. BOX 5043 WALLINGFORD, CT 06492

POST CARD

*Greetings
from*

Acclaimed Broadway performer Stephen Bogardus '72 is currently appearing in Girl from the North Country at The Public Theater in New York. He got his start in musical theater during his junior year at Choate.

A Note from the Green Room:

I'll always be thankful to Choate for providing my first break in showbiz.

I sang and danced "Won't you Charleston With Me?" in Choate's first-ever musical, The Boy Friend. When I got huge applause at the end - that was it, my spark moment!

Although Choate produced some amazing performances back then, The Paul Mellon Arts Center is doing even more remarkable things today.

However your life has been choreographed, I hope Choate's still a familiar step.

Stephen '72

POST CARD

CHOATE ROSEMARY HALL 333 CHRISTIAN STREET P.O. BOX 5043 WALLINGFORD, CT 06492

GO

Here's how YOU can

CHOATE Today!

Greetings from

TOY
LAND

Tze Hung U '98 works at LEGO Group, where he applies what he learned at Choate about having fun while taking risks to his role in developing marketing campaigns for the successful series of LEGO movies.

HELLO FROM HOLLYWOOD!
(YES, PEOPLE REALLY DO SAY THAT HERE)

SOMETHING JUST OCCURED TO ME: I REALIZED
I'M PART OF A TEAM OF PEOPLE THAT'S BEEN ASSEMBLED TO MAKE MOVIES ABOUT A TEAM OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN ASSEMBLED FROM PARTS.
IT ALL COMES TOGETHER!

THIS IS A GOOD FIT FOR ME, AND I OWE A LOT
OF IT TO CHOATE, WHERE I FIRST LEARNED ABOUT TEAMWORK AND THE SATISFACTION THAT COMES FROM BUILDING NEW THINGS.

HOWEVER YOUR LIFE FITS TOGETHER, I HOPE
YOU STILL CONSIDER CHOATE AN IMPORTANT PIECE.

HUNG '98

Here's how YOU can

GO

CHOATE Today!

CHOATE ROSEMARY HALL 333 CHRISTIAN STREET P.O. BOX 5043 WALLINGFORD, CT 06492

POST CARD

Greetings
FROM THE

CONGO

The word 'CONGO' is rendered in large, bold, yellow-outlined letters. Each letter serves as a frame for a different scenic image from the region. The 'C' shows a boat with people on the water. The first 'O' features a traditional thatched-roof hut. The 'N' depicts a river flowing through a valley. The 'G' shows a large elephant in a savanna. The second 'O' contains a herd of animals, possibly a zebra or similar, grazing in a field.

Lake Tanganyika

Amy G. Lehman, MD, MBA '91 is the founder of the Lake Tanganyika Floating Health Clinic, helping to bring quality health care to the millions living in the Lake Tanganyika basin.

Hello from the DRC!

Sub-Saharan Africa may seem worlds away from Wallingford, but I wouldn't be here today if it weren't for my years at Choate.

I was fortunate to have a close friendship with a woman from East Africa, and together with one of our teachers, we attended a seminar on post-colonial literature which helped launch my life-long interest in the African Great Lakes.

No matter how far you travel, I hope you always remain close to Choate.

Amy '91

POST CARD

CHOATE ROSEMARY HALL 333 CHRISTIAN STREET P.O. BOX 5043 WALLINGFORD, CT 06492

GO

Here's how YOU can

CHOATE Today!

Greetings from the

GAITHER

Josephine Pucci '09 is a U.S. Army Lieutenant studying medicine at Uniformed Services University. A standout hockey player at Choate and 2014 Olympic silver medalist, she's pursuing an interest in medicine that she began to develop while studying psychology at Choate.

GREETINGS FROM WALTER REED,

I'VE BEEN THINKING BACK TO MY DAYS AT CHOATE,
AND HOW I WAS SUPPORTED IN MY PURSUIT OF
TWO SEEMINGLY UNRELATED PASSIONS — PSYCHOLOGY AND ICE HOCKEY.

AS AN OLYMPIC HOCKEY PLAYER, MY PERSONAL EXPERIENCES WITH HEAD TRAUMA PLAYED RIGHT
INTO MY INTEREST IN NEUROSCIENCE. TODAY, AS A MEDICAL STUDENT, I AM STUDYING THE EFFECTS OF TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURY ON SOLDIERS.

SO A BIG THANKS FOR THE APPLE, CHOATE! (THAT'S HOCKEY TALK FOR AN ASSIST.)

I HOPE WHEREVER YOUR LIFE TAKES YOU, YOU'LL ALWAYS CIRCLE BACK TO CHOATE.

JOSEPHINE '09

POST CARD

CHOATE ROSEMARY HALL 333 CHRISTIAN STREET P.O. BOX 5043 WALLINGFORD, CT 06492

GO

Here's how YOU can

CHOATE Today!

Greetings

from

David McWhirter '82 is a television director and producer working in Los Angeles whose credits include The Closer, Blindspot, and Quantico. He puts to daily use what he learned at Choate about leadership, telling stories, and the importance of following your vision.

Greetings from L.A.!

Thanks to Choate, I'm doing what I love! Whether in Mr. Sell's physics classroom, on the football field, or in the PMAC directing a scene, I came to understand the importance of collaborating, keeping a sense of humor, meeting challenges directly, and always pressing on. I learned to do what it takes to "make the day."

However you direct your life, I hope Choate will always play a leading role.

David '82

POST CARD

CHOATE ROSEMARY HALL 333 CHRISTIAN STREET P.O. BOX 5043 WALLINGFORD, CT 06492

GO

Here's how YOU can

CHOATE Today!